Third Annual Quilt Walk highlights activities in downtown Lake City on Friday and Saturday

Lake City's Third Annual Quilt Walk highlights several downtown activities this weekend, including the Marion Street Market and the Finally Friday concert and free movie. There will be food and entertainment throughout the weekend.

Store windows in the Historic District will display the special collection of quilts on Friday and Saturday, March 27 and 28, from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

The Downtown Action Corporation sponsors the event that includes quilt appraisals, demonstrations and vendors.

The Lake City/Columbia County Historical Museum will have a Keepsake Quilting Trunk Show.

Friday at noon Tucker's Fine Dining will offer a "Lunch and Learn" event.

First Baptist Church also will have an elaborate quilt display in the fellowship hall and will feature a luncheon on both days of the event. For additional information call 758-1312.

Quilters still have time to enter the event. Quilts can be brought to Amygene's Embroidery Studio, 275 N. Mario Avenue, in downtown Lake. Call the shop owner, Gene Perry, at 754-3741.

Vendors at the Marion Street Farmers Market will offer fresh produce, cut flowers and landscape plants, including shrubs and trees. The market opens at 2 p.m. Friday and runs until dusk.

The Finally Friday party in Olustee Park begins with a free concert at 6:30 p.m., featuring Cindy Kay and the Starlight Band. The free movie, "Kung Fu Panda," will begin at approximately 8:15 p.m. Visitors are encouraged to bring their own lawn chair for this free event. Finally Friday also is sponsored by the Downtown Action Corporation.

On Saturday, a car show will be hosted in the parking lot in front of the Columbia County Courthouse Annex.
